

Baseball for Autism Awareness ART WORK CONTEST

April is Autism Awareness Month and once again The Florida Marlins and The Autism Society of America are teaming up for the annual Baseball for Autism Awareness Night on Friday, April 24, 2009 when the Marlins host the World Champion Philadelphia Phillies.

As part of this year's activities, there will be an artwork contest to recognize the talents of children and adults with autism spectrum disorders (ASD). Children and adults with ASD are encouraged to participate.

Submissions will be displayed at a pre-game exhibit located at The Strike Zone at Gate H of Dolphin Stadium from 5:30 PM-6:45 PM prior to the game's first pitch.

Submit entries to:

ASA Broward
P.O. Box 450476
Sunrise, FL 33345

For more information, please e-mail info@asabroward.org

* Artwork entries should be no larger than 8.5" x 11" in size.

ASA Broward must receive all entries no later than midnight of April 3, 2009.

The theme is "What Baseball Means to Me" The art work should include the artist's definition of baseball. The medium could be pencil, paint, crayon, marker, tactile (glitter, cotton, sand, etc). The project can be individual or group/class.

So, submit your best portrayal of: "What Baseball Means to Me"

Entry Form

Child's Name _____

Age _____

Child's Organization (if applicable) _____

Parent/Guardian Name _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Home Phone _____ Cell Phone _____

E-mail Address _____